Inferring With Music Lyrics: Assignments Your Students Will Love!
Musical Inferring & Predicting

Inferring occurs when a reader uses clues to figure out information that is not provided while predictions occur when the reader uses what they know to guess what will happen later. Use the lyrics below to answer the inferring and predicting questions in the space provided. Do not read ahead in the lyrics. Base your answers on the section of text given.

Two black Cadillacs driving in a slow parade.
Headlights shining bright in the middle of the day.
One is for his wife,
The other for the woman who loved him at night.
Two black Cadillacs meeting for the first time.

Where do you think the two black Cadillacs are going? Why?
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________

What can you infer about the personality of the husband? What makes you think this?
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________

And the preacher said he was a good man,
And his brother said he was a good friend
But the women in the two black veils didn't bother to cry
They took turns laying a rose down,
Threw a handful of dirt into the deep ground
He's not the only one who had a secret to hide

How do the women and other family members feel about this tragedy? Give evidence
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________

What do you think the last line means? Who has a secret and what is the secret? What evidence did you use to make your prediction?
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
Two months ago his wife called the number on his phone. Turns out, he'd been lying to both of them for oh so long. They decided then he'd never get away with doing this to them. Two black Cadillacs, waiting for the right time. The right time.

What can you infer about this phone conversation (who is talking on the phone, what do they discuss etc). Give evidence to support your inferences.

__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________

It was the first and the last time they ever saw each other face to face. They shared a crimson smile, and just walked away, And left the secret at the grave.

Why you think the two women smiled at each other? What does the last line infer.
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
I heard that you're settled down
That you found a girl and you're married now
I heard that your dreams came true
Guess she gave you things I didn't give to you

Old friend, why are you so shy?
Ain't like you to hold back or hide from the light
I hate to turn up out of the blue, uninvited
But I couldn't stay away, I couldn't fight it
I had hoped you'd see my face and that you'd be reminded
That for me, it isn't over

What can you infer about the relationship between the speaker and the person she is talking to? What evidence did you use to come to this conclusion?

Where is the speaker at this point in the song? How do you know this?

Make a prediction about how the person she is talking to will react. What makes you think this?
Never mind, I'll find someone like you
I wish nothing but the best for you, too
Don’t forget me, I begged, I remember you said
Sometimes it lasts in love, but sometimes it hurts instead

How did the conversation go? Discuss how you think the person reacted, what was said, and how they felt.

__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________

You know how the time flies
Only yesterday was the time of our lives
We were born and raised in a summer haze
Bound by the surprise of our glory days

Nothing compares, no worries or cares
Regrets and mistakes, they're memories made
Who would have known how bittersweet this would taste?

Based on these lyrics, discuss how you think the speaker feels and what she will do now. Give evidence for your answer.

__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________________

© Presto Plans
Musical Inferring & Predicting

Inferring occurs when a reader uses clues to figure out information that is not provided while predictions occur when the reader uses what they know to guess what will happen later. Use the lyrics below to answer the inferring and predicting questions in the space provided. Do not read ahead in the lyrics. Base your answers on the section of text given.

Who is Drew? What can you infer about him by what the speaker says? Give evidence.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Drew looks at me</th>
<th>I'll bet she's beautiful</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I fake a smile so he won't see</td>
<td>That girl he talks about</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What I want and I need</td>
<td>And she's got everything</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>And everything that we should be</td>
<td>That I have to live without</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

What can you infer about the relationship between the speaker and Drew? Give evidence. Do you think they will end up together? Why or why not?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Drew talks to me</th>
<th>He says he's so in love</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I laugh 'cause it's just so funny</td>
<td>He's finally got it right</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I can't even see</td>
<td>I wonder if he knows</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anyone when he's with me</td>
<td>He's all I think about at night</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

He's the reason for the teardrops on my guitar
The only thing that keeps me wishing on a wishing star
He's the song in the car I keep singing
Don't know why I do

---

© Presto Plans
Musical Inferring & Predicting

Inferring occurs when a reader uses clues to figure out information that is not provided while predictions occur when the reader uses what they know to guess what will happen later. Use the lyrics below to answer the inferring and predicting questions in the space provided. Do not read ahead in the lyrics. Base your answers on the section of text given.

What can you infer about the relationship between these two people? How has it changed?

___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________

What happened to the relationship? Who was to blame? How do you know this?

___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________

You were my sun
You were my earth
But you didn't know all the ways I loved you, no
So you took a chance
And made other plans
But I bet you didn't think that they would come crashing down, no

You don't have to say, what you did,
I already know, I found out from him
Now there's just no chance, for you and me, there'll never be
And don't it make you sad about it
You told me you loved me
Why did you leave me, all alone
Now you tell me you need me
When you call me, on the phone
Girl I refuse, you must have me confused
With some other guy
Your bridges were burned, and now it's your turn
To cry, cry me a river

What emotions do you think the speaker and the girl are feeling from these lyrics? Give evidence to support your answer.

I know that they say
That somethings are better left unsaid
It wasn't like you only talked to him and you know it
(Don't act like you don't know it)
All of these things people told me
Kept messing with my head
(Messing with my head)
You should've picked honesty
Then you may not have blown it.

Make a prediction about the future of this relationship. Give reasons for your prediction.
Thank-you for your purchase!
Click the images below to see more!

- Inference Bundle
  - Presentations, Posters
  - FUN Activities & Worksheets!

- Middle & High School TEACHER BINDER
  - 90 Editable Pages
  - Back-To-School Organizer

- 50 Ready-To-Use Assignments FOR ANY Reading!

- POETRY Resource Bundle
  - Middle/High School
  - 270 Pages Of Relevant & Engaging Resources

- FULL YEAR! Middle & High Bell-Ringers

- Literary Term Of The Week
  - Modern Examples:
    - Movies, Music, TV, & More!

http://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Presto-Plans
Have you ever thought about selling your own teaching resources?

If yes, sign up for Teachers Pay Teachers by clicking the referral image below:

Referred By PRESTO PLANS